

As you read through the narrative of how Virtuous Leadership expert Alex Havard came to find his mission through the contemplation of his own story, ask yourself:

WHAT IS MY STORY? WHAT IS MY TALENT?

WHAT IS THE CULTURAL OR SOCIAL CHALLENGE I AM CALLED TO RESPOND TO WITH PASSION AND DEDICATION?

Reflect on your story. Contemplate it. Recognize that your story is your strength. And write it down.

“In my Virtuous Leadership classes I always call on my students to discover their own essence in order to identify a mission. And to help determine what that is, I ask them to write the story of their lives to that point. I suggest that in the writing they will begin to see themselves for who they are, to develop a concept of self, and, in the process, discern a mission—the thing they were born to do.”

— Alexandre Havard

“As I read My Way to Virtuous Leadership, I frequently felt the thrill of the Holy Spirit’s anointing... a sign for me of the graced ‘mission’ of the book itself.”

— Michael O’Brien, author of the bestseller Father Elijah—An Apocalypse.

Alexandre Havard is the founder of the Virtuous Leadership System. He was born and raised in Paris and is a graduate of one of France’s leading law schools (Paris Descartes University). He worked as a lawyer in Europe for many years before discovering his mission to ignite hearts for greatness and raise up a new generation of Virtuous Leaders. His books Virtuous Leadership, Created for Greatness, From Temperament to Character, Free Hearts, and Coached by Joan of Arc have been translated into many languages.
